Remarks as Prepared for Delivery

Jasper Emhoff: Kamala Harris is our Auntie.

Arden Emhoff: She'll be a president who cares for all of us.

Alexander Hudlin: She'll lift us up. In 2016, we celebrated Auntie's Senate win. Then, we saw Trump winning. I was nine. But I knew enough to be concerned. Auntie said, "Do you know what superheroes do? They fight back. And we will too."

Jasper Emhoff: She will make time for what matters. You know, no one is busier than my Auntie. But she always makes time for family. From moments as simple as cooking and sharing a meal to exchanging stories and jokes, Auntie taught me about being present in what's important. And I know that's how she'll lead.

Arden Emhoff: She'll treat everyone with respect. Even as a kid, Auntie made me feel that I was seen. That my words are important. That I am important and loved. I know she'll value others' perspectives, no matter their age or background.

Jasper Emhoff: Auntie, we love you.

Arden Emhoff: We're proud of you.

Alexander Hudlin: And most importantly, you're a baller. And as you'd say—

All: Let's win this thing!
